Dover – The Delaware State Police have arrested a wanted Camden man after he attempted to flee from troopers in a short foot pursuit.

The original incidents occurred during the nighttime hours between Thursday September 22, 2016 and Saturday September 24, 2016 when two separate vehicles were broken into located in the 1300 block of South State Street and the 1700 block of Windswept Court. The suspects, who were later identified as Pablo Jackson, 32 (Homeless), and Joshua L. Bryant, 25 of Cheswold, removed items such as cash and purses from the vehicles. The two then began making credit card purchases from the Cheswold Walmart as well as the Camden Walmart totaling more than $3,400.00. Detectives were able to identify the two suspects through store surveillance and Theft and Identity Theft warrants were obtained for their arrest.

On Wednesday September 28, 2016, a trooper and probation officer assigned to the State Police Kent County Governor's Task Force (GTF) were actively patrolling the area of South DuPont Highway (US13) and Lochmeath Way, when they observed Pablo Jackson walking northbound on the southbound shoulder of US13. As the task force members made a U-turn in an attempt to make contact with Jackson, he was observed looking into vehicles near the South Side Baptist Church (4904 South DuPont Highway). When the trooper and probation officer began to exit the patrol vehicle in the driveway, in which Jackson was walking out, he turned and began running away from the two and discarded the backpack he was carrying. The trooper gave numerous commands for Jackson to stop, but he continued to flee until the trooper caught him and took him into custody without further incident. A search of Jackson's backpack revealed 24 bags of heroin (0.36 grams) along with drug paraphernalia.

Pablo Jackson was transported back to Troop 3 where he was charged with Resisting Arrest, Possession of a Controlled Substance (Heroin), and two counts of Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. He was also charged with 18 counts of Identity Theft, five counts of Attempted Identity Theft, 18 counts of Unauthorized Use of a Credit Card, five counts of Attempted Unauthorized Use of a Credit Card, two counts of Theft Under $1500, 10 counts of Theft by False Pretense Under $1500, Conspiracy 2nd, and two counts of Criminal Trespass 3rd. He was arraigned at JP2 and committed to Sussex Correctional Institution on a total of $93,600 cash bond.
